The Old Guard, Sanford's Cinger

With sleepless vigilance SANFORD'S GINGER guards the home against a thousand dangers that live in air, water, food, and climate. Never has it been found wanting in any emergency, and hence it has become enshrined in countless homes as the realization of that old proverb, and current maxim, "A man's home is his castle." Once introduced into the home, it can never be dispelled. It is its own best advertisement. Thousands say daily, "Use SANFORD'S GINGER; it is the best of all gingers." Composed of imported ginger, choice aromatics, and the best of medicinal French Brandy, SANFORD'S GINGER is vastly superior to all other gingers, and care should be exercised in purchasing, lest some cheap, worthless, and often dangerous ginger be substituted. A. RISING MARKET—Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained To-Day.

Prices were generally decided higher, although the sale of stock were not large.

The following letter was received from the Postmaster:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—This morning's limited train for the West carried Hon. James Love of Liberty, late a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, toward his home in Missouri. Prof. Love did not leave here in a very happy state of mind, but, on the contrary, departed, determined to make the most of his time in the Third Congressional District when he gets there. Since the Post Office Department first gave Mr. Love to understand that he was charged with being in the office brokerage business he has remained here and embraced every means to clear away any such bad accusation. He has offered rewards for his accusers, but as yet none of them have showed their heads. Anyhow, Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson did not form much of a liking for Mr. Love as the adviser of appointments the Post Office Department.

Mr. Love, after a year spent in the Third Congressional District, the postmastership at Excelsior Springs has been pending for some time, and Mr. Love showed the department here that N. E. Benson had the indorsements of everybody nearly, for the place, including himself. So certain was he that the appointment of Benson would be made that he worried no more about it. Col. Van Horn of Kansas City, along the other side, and Gen. Clarkson accepted his advice and appointed Editor W. A. Norton postmaster at Excelsior Springs. When Mr. Love heard of it he proceeded to denounce the proceedings as unjust and col. Van Horn as a meddler, and closed the day by addressing the following letter to Gen. Clarkson:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20, 1888.

Hon. J. S. Clarkson, First Assistant Postmaster-General.

—After what took place at our interview this morning, self-respect forbids my continuing in the relation of adviser of appointments to the Post Office Department, and I will not do so again.

BLIND Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 a. m. to-day, for Missouri: Rain, followed by fair; cooler; northerly winds.

PROHIBITION is in the cataclysmic debris.

ST. LOUIS had a touch of Chicago and Eastern resort summer weather for two days, but resumed her normal condition of breezy coolness last night.

DELAY is better than default in the prosecution of the naturalization cases.
The government officials can have all the time they desire if they will use it to secure the conviction of election offenders.

The result in Rhode Island suggests that Maine, Kansas and Iowa must be ready for another vote on the prohibition question. The joint-ridden people of these States ought to be given another chance.

The proposed Fourth of July glorification at Forest Park still lingers in the lap of inaction, but the festive fire-cracker has come off the shelf and noisily announces the approach of "the day we celebrate."

NINE States—Michigan, Texas, Tennessee, Oregon, West Virginia, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island—have, in the last two years, rejected prohibition amendments by immense majorities.

The Cherokee Commission is filled again by the appointment and acceptance of Gov. HARRAN of Pennsylvania. If SECRETARY NOBLE will box the commission up and ship it to the Indian Territory under strong guard it may stay filled.

FORTUNATELY it will not be necessary for Missourians in Washington to go abroad or take trips to summer resorts.
When they want a thorough cooling they can drop in on the President and talk about the offices and Missouri applicants.

The Chippewa war dance turns out to be only a Chippewa jamboree, in which the Indians painted the Mille Lacs region a lurid crimson and killed a white man. It was merely a big effort on the part of the Chippewas to prove that they are thoroughly civilized.

The fact that Delegate LEHMANN was accused under an indictment of the late Assistant District Attorney should entitle the present Federal Court officials to another trial before judgment is pronounced. A Knapp indictment is a heavy handicap for the prosecution to carry.

Mr. WOODRUFF, the eminent Chicago lawyer, forgot to mention Mr. M.
BURKE, the latest suspect, in his last confession. Now that Mr. BURKE has jumped into prominence as an accomplice in the Cronin murder a revised and corrected confession may be expected from Mr.
WOODRUFF.

EIGHTEEN accidents in which human lives have been lost or seriously endangered occurring within two years is a terrible record of casualties for a single railroad track extending over a few city blocks. And yet this is the record of the Burr street track. Is it any wonder who are compelled to travel over or cross this track want it removed and are bitterly opposed to granting franchises for other surface tracks?

UNLAWFUL EXTRADITION.

One of the settled points of interstate extradition law and usage is that nothing short of an indictment or complaint, under oath, making out a prima facie case can justify the surrender of the demanded person. Another settled point is that he must be identified as the accused person, and as a person who was within the demanding State at the time the alleged crime was committed. It has been judicially decided that a person who, in another State, conspired with others to commit a crime in Missouri, is not demandable by Missouri as a fugitive.

Now take the case of MARONEY and MC DONALD, two citizens of New York, accused of the murder of Dr. CRONIN in Illinois, and demanded upon mere "information and belief" that they were the persons who took and furnished the Carlson cottage, where the murder was committed.
They asserted their ability to prove that they were in New York when the murder was committed. If they had been surrendered for trial in Illinois without any preliminary examination in New York, no compulsory process of an Illinois court could have compelled the attendance of the New York witnesses by whom alone they could have proved the alibi.

PERHAPS one reason that Chancellor BISMARCK was so pliable in the Samoan Conference may be found in the war preparations of Russia and Austria. The war cloud seems to grow denser every day and Germany would like to be unham-pered by outside enemies, and particularly the enmity of America, when the fur begins to fly in Europe.

But then the Colonel did not make an exhibition of himself before he saw the President.

It is gratifying to learn that new and better bills of indictment have been found against Messrs. LEHMANN and NEBERT in the naturalization fraud cases. The attorneys for the prosecution claim that the failure to convict Delegate LEHMANN was due in large measure to TOMMY TRADDELL KNAPP's self-knocking-out indictment.
The fair promises of better success next time are accepted with the amended indictments.

THE President refused to wear a badge of the Patriotic Sons of America, tendered him by a member of the order. As this incident cannot mean that the President does not regard himself as a patriotic son of America it must mean that he is looking forward to a time when the voices of the patriotic sons of other countries will be useful. He has not yet pledged himself not to take a second term.

In Pennsylvania, where electoral reform and a free unbought ballot are not popular, the amendment repealing the poll-tax qualification for suffrage has been voted down by a huge majority. Big campaign assessments to pay poll-taxes for voters and to marshal them in blocks of five will therefore continue to be a feature of elections in that State.

EX-MINISTER PHELPS has written to the faculty of the Yale law school saying that he will be on hand at the opening of the college year to instruct the classes in equity and evidence.

DEACON RICHARD SMITH, editor of the Clinical Commercial-Gazette and the Toledo Commercial, makes the startling statement that there is no "party paper in Ohio that will permit the truth to be told in its issues right along through a campaign."

PRIVATE SECRETARY ELIJAH HALFORD has proved himself a tireless worker. His powers of endurance are as remarkable as his skill as a whistler. He is at the White House early in the morning and late at night. He moves about rapidly, never loses his temper, and is affectionate to callers.

MR. LLOYD S. BRYCE, who receives a controlling interest in the North American Review by the will of the late Allen Thorndike Rice, is a young gentleman not unknown in politics or in literature. He represented one of the up-town districts of New York City in the last Congress, having been elected as a Democrat, and he has written a novel.

should be to prevent the gravely threatened setting up of a plutocracy on the pedestals from which we have cast down the older order.

A VENZUELA'S DOWNFALL.

GUZMAN BLANCO, THE DICTATOR OF VENZUELA, FORCED FROM POWER.

The Republic's First Peaceful Revolution Successfully Accomplished—Military Despotism Abolished—President Paul Yields to the Popular Demand and Continues in Office—Demonstrations of Joy—Blanco's Rage.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Under date of June 10 the Sun to-day publishes the following correspondence from Caracas, Venezuela:

The first peaceful revolution this republic has ever known has been accomplished; the reign of Guzman Blanco is ended and military despotism abolished. All the people rejoice that the reign of Blanco is over and are awaiting in the streets: "Down with the tyrant. Freedom of the press prevails." Blanco is in Paris planning revenge, and the recovery of his lost power.

Gen. Guzman Blanco, since he first came into control of the Government in 1870, seemed to regard Venezuela as his own property, to do with as he desired. He treated the Republic, which embraces an area as large as the Middle States and New England, as if it were his own inherited estate, and the 3,000,000 of people as his tenants at will. He had been an uncrowned Czar and his Government an absolute despotism. Under the Constitution the President may not succeed himself in office, may not have two consecutive terms, but is eligible for re-election after an interval. Gen. Guzman, therefore, filled the presidential chair every alternating year, during the last sixteen years at various times placed in power a dummy or mask, who was entirely subject to his will. His many acts of tyranny awakened a secret hostility that was only

SUPPRESSED BY MILITARY FORCE.

It has occasionally been manifested by an outbreak or an attempt at assassination and during the latter years he was compelled to surround himself by soldiers night and day to protect himself from the vengeance of those who suffered at his hands. Two years ago, at the expiration of his presidential term, he left the country and has since resided in Paris. The cable between Caracas and Havre has enabled him to continue the direction of Governmental affairs, and nothing was done here without his approval. He was a tyrant, a brutes, a murderer, a kidnapper, a Knavy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to all the European powers, and the ostensible author of his abominable acts to the people withdrew his resignation and continued in the performance of his constitutional functions.

On the following day the President fulfilled his promise and after passing a resolution of confidence in him, Com. Paujil adjourned in great haste. One of the last acts of the Congress, and a measure to which Guzman had been violently opposed, was the ratification of a treaty with the United States for a re-opening of the claims of certain citizens of the latter nation against the Venezuelan Government during the revolution by which he came into power.

Gen. Crepo called his approval of Paujil's action from Peru, and is now on his way to the United States. The President, however, did not return to assist in making his overthrow complete and permanent.

THE ANARCHY MAN IN PARIS, and replaced him by a man in whom he had confidence, and called out an auxiliary troops from Guzman, but Paujil was sustained by the people and the Congress and did not swerve from his course. The most serious trouble that vexes Venezuela is over the boundary line between its provinces on the Orinoco and British Guiana. England has been pushing her outposts over the border until she now embraces the mineral district of the Orinoco, and the British have been robbing the richest portion of her territory.

Guzman Blanco was authorized to seize the mineral lands, but Lord Salisbury declined to treat with him because during the last presidential term he had insulted Mr. St. John, the British Minister at Caracas, and the British Government took refuge upon an English man-of-war in the harbor of La Guayra. But wild rumors came from England that Guzman had not been captured, and that he was still in the Orinoco Province entirely in his own interest and intended to pocket the prize.

The people were excited by these reports, and gathered in the streets and some of the anti-Guzman papers added fuel to the flames by saying that he was already captured. They came on the anniversary of the capture of Caracas by Guzman, and his assumption of the Presidency on the 17th of May. The people of Caracas, as was usual in all the cities of the country, the people decorated the statues of Bolivar and other heroes were held up to the insults of Guzman.

Gen. Guzman learned in Paris of these long cables and sent and sent several to the British Government, and informed the first that the presidential chair every alternating year, during the last sixteen years at various times placed in power a dummy or mask, who was entirely subject to his will. His many acts of tyranny awakened a secret hostility that was only

THE BETHEL TO BE GIVEN A PICNIC BY MR. H. C. TOWNSEND.

It Will Take Place To-Morrow at Mr. Townsend's Beautiful Place in Kirkwood—Two Professions to Be Made at St. De Chantal Convent To-Morrow—An Expected Rush for Seats of the Old College.

THROUGH the kindness and benevolence of Mr. H. C. Townsend, General Passenger Agent of the Missouri Pacific road, a treat has been prepared for the Bethel Mission Sunday school. Mr. Townsend has invited the school to visit him at his beautiful place in Kirkwood to-morrow, and has volunteered to furnish himself the funds for their transportation, and to give them a first-class good time. He has sent to the officers of the Home tickets for all their charges, about one thousand in number. These tickets will be good for transportation on the train which leaves the Union Depot for Kirkwood at 9 a.m. and returning leaves Kirkwood at 6 p.m. The officers and members of the school will march in a body to the train and will be in charge of Supt. D. F. Wolfe, Assistant Superintendents C. H. Ten Brook and Capt. Baird. The officers of Bethel Association, of which Hon. Nathan Cole is President, will also attend. The excursion will take the place of the annual "Flower Day." It has been the custom of the association to have all the members and friends of the institution bring flowers to the Home one day in the year, but this year through Mr. Townsend's generosity the members of the school will have an opportunity of gathering wild flowers, which blossom in abundance around Mr. Townsend's place, and the flowers will be given to the friends of the young ladies in this city, the opportunity of witnessing the ceremony.

Mr. Townsend has given a large sum of money for the entertainment of their visitors. The excursion will bring a fund with them a great deal of money for holding milk will be tested, Mr. Townsend, besides affording the school transportation, will go to the expense of providing base ball and bats for the boys, croquet sets for the girls and tennis for both. The picnic will undoubtedly be the most enjoyable of the year.

Prayers at De Chantal.

There will be two professions to-morrow at the Convent of St. De Chantal of the Visitation, on Forty-first and Washington avenue. Especial interest will be attached to the ceremony from the fact that it is the first of the kind which has taken place in the United States. The two sisters who will make their final vows are Sister Francis De Chantal and Sister Margaret Mary.

Sister Francis De Chantal was known before her reception into the order of the Visitation, before the world, as Sister Mary, Miss Robinson was of English birth and is a convert to the Roman Catholic faith from the Protestant Church. Sister Margaret Mary, before her reception into the order of the Visitation, bore the name of Mary Barry, and came from Dublin to live up to the name of her mother.

The ceremony of conferring the black veil will be conferred by Vicar-General Brady, who will be assisted by Father Fenlon, Father Monier, J. J. and the pastor of the church.

Especial interest will be attached to the ceremony from the fact that it is the first of the kind which has taken place in the United States. The two sisters who will make their final vows are Sister Francis De Chantal and Sister Margaret Mary.

Sister Francis De Chantal was known before her reception into the order of the Visitation, before the world, as Sister Mary, Miss Robinson was of English birth and is a convert to the Roman Catholic faith from the Protestant Church. Sister Margaret Mary, before her reception into the order of the Visitation, bore the name of Mary Barry, and came from Dublin to live up to the name of her mother.

THE FIGHTING GROUND.

STEVENSON HUNTING A PLACE FOR THE SULLIVAN-KILRAIN MILL.

We Want Money, but Not a Fight—Chances of the College Crew—Manning Ahead in the Pool Championship Match—Pastime Games at the Fair Grounds To-Morrow—Sporting Matters.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

GATES FERRY, Conn., June 21.—The day is approaching when the college crews will celebrate their victories on the Thames as a matter of doubt, as the Mayor of New London has issued an edict forbidding the discharge of all fireworks in the city before July 4. It suits this order, however, it is more than likely that red and blue fires will burn freely on the night following the Yale-Harvard race, eight days hence.

All the grown-up men are doing the hardest kind of work and there is shell-rowing enough on the Thames to satisfy the greatest lover of the sport. The Harvard Freshmen went out first yesterday morning and dashed up past the quarters of the Columbia Freshmen, who were soon in their boat. The New York boys will have all they can do to cope with the crew from Cambridge. Interest in all the other races, however, pales in comparison with that taken in the Yale-Harvard contest. The Harvard Varsity are on the water almost constantly, 'd almost as constantly are they under the old glasses of "Bob" Cook, Yale's veteran coach. The Harvard men are a splendid lot, brawny and beefy. They are pulling a clear, stroke of thirty-two to the minute, and slice through the water. No one need be crab catching. The doing no exception. They have the lead in the race for a mile, except that each time they move rapidly followed. There are crafts about this practice on the river after all. Neither side has other any undue advantage.

All unquestionably have an advantage in the work to-morrow.

Yale's crew is doing a good thirty-stroke. Their work has improved desently since they came to the river. No one can predict with any certainty the outcome of the race with Harvard. The indications are that it will be one of the closest ever rowed on the river. The Yale men take long pulls and have made some excellent time.

The chances for the University of Pennsylvania do not seem to be flattering. The crew do ragged work still and do not seem to be in top form. It is the general opinion that if they cannot beat them easily the Blue and Gold will be beaten by the Crimson.

The Princeton crew are all but enjoying them- selves greatly on the river. They are very popular both with New Londoners and with Yale's Ferry.

It has been decided that Yale will have the easiest of the big races in to-morrow.

"I have the water," "easy," "grass sides, sheer will will prove a disadvantage for Yale to remain to be seen.

Yale-Pennsylvania Race.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 21.—The Yale-Pennsylvania University race will be pulled this evening at 6 o'clock. The conditions are not favorable for a good race. From reliable sources it is learned that the Yale crew is not in the best condition. Hartwell will be in the boat and will not row to-day. He is not in the best condition. His place is filled by Newell, '90, who has been doing first-class work as a substitute. Two other men have been added to the crew and are to be Cook thinks they are not in condition to race to-day and ought not to be out at all. Every Yale man talks discouragingly of the race. The Harvard men are in to-morrow's race centers wholly in the showing to be made by the crew.

Winston Wins Again.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 21.—L. W. Winston of St. Louis and James A. Elliott of the place shot off the second of their series of four matches, to 32, 16, 16, 16, yesterday, and again won. Play was suspended and they tied on 16 shot each. In the shoot-off Winston won, breaking 21 to Elliott's 20 out of 16. The final score was 16 to 16. The best of fifty pairs live birds. The best E. Elliott can now possibly do is to tie the series by winning the next two matches.

NEW YORK, June 21.—No news of an official nature has yet come from the Royal Yacht Squadron regarding the Valkyrie or the challenge for the America's cup, but members of the Cup Committee, after reading the cabled reports yesterday quoting Lord Dunraven as having said that he was perfectly satisfied with "the arrangement" of the cup, and that the race would come off under the conditions contained in the recent correspondence.

Going to the Battle Ground.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Frank Stevenson, who has charge of all the arrangements for the Sullivan-Kilrain fight for $20,000 and the championship of the world, which is to take place in the State of Louisiana within 200 miles of New Orleans, Monday, June 25, will leave for the South Sunday morning. He will be accompanied by Prof. Mike Donovan, who, with Charlie Miller, will meet him at Kilrain's training quarters, and has noticed Kilrain and Mitchell to meet him at the gymnasium in New Orleans. He will proceed to Louisiana, select the battle ground and perfect the details of the fight. He will be in the city as soon as ever seen in this country. He had just returned from Boston when seen by a reporter last night, and went to the office of the Standard to bring the cableable news from his lordship. They made confident that the international race could come off under the conditions contained in the recent correspondence.
